The Renaissance at Colony Park

The finest fashion and retail shops in Mississippi as well as dining and entertainment are now under construction on the Highland Colony Parkway at the northwest corner of I55 and Old Agency Road in Ridgeland, Mississippi.

Renaissance at Colony Park is a joint venture of Mattiace Properties, Inc. and H.C. Bailey Companies. The development, with its distinctive Lifestyle Main Street concept, will provide spacious green common areas for strolling and relaxing, beautiful water features throughout, sidewalk cafes and a town center square hosting an on-going array of special events such as concerts and shows.

The open-air lifestyle center concept goes beyond shopping, dining and entertainment, relying heavily on the architecture and amenities to create a new experience for the consumer. The architectural style for Renaissance at Colony Park has been derived from European and Mediterranean influences, utilizing a mix of classical features, such as arched openings, clay tile roofs, and stone and stucco facades. There will be a variety of forms, shapes and color with a strong emphasis on pedestrian scale elements such as landscaping, varied paving patterns, benches, wrought iron railings and trellises, fountains, and decorative lighting.

Mississippi Memorial Stadium

This stadium has a capacity of 62,500 and is one of the finest in the South. College football, track meets, concerts and other outdoor events are held at this facility. For ticket information call (601) 354-6021.

Coliseum

Throughout the year, all types of events are presented at this 10,000 seat coliseum: horse shows, ice shows, rodeos, circuses, college basketball, musical events, livestock shows to name a few. This building is acknowledged as one of the most complete facilities of its kind in America. The phone number is (601) 961-4000.

Trademart

Located on the State Fair Grounds is a 43,200 square foot exhibition center for trade shows, travel, flower, and antique shows, meetings and banquets. The phone number is (601) 354-7051.

Historical Attractions

Daily tours of the Governor's Mansion, Old Capitol and New Capitol are available to the public. The Mississippi Agricultural and Forestry/National Agricultural Aviation Museum provides an authentic presentation of a working farm much as it was 60 years ago. In Canton, located in Madison County, there are the historic Madison County Courthouse and Old Jail Museum.

Zoo

The Jackson Zoological Park consists of 100 acres and features a collection of animals from throughout the world. There is a special Discovery Zoo where children can learn by doing. It is a popular spot with young and old alike. They may be reached at (601) 352-2580.

Ross R. Barnett Reservoir

The 50-square-mile reservoir offers excellent facilities for fishing, sailing, skiing, several marinas, camping and picnics.

Natchez Trace Parkway

This 400-mile parkway stretches from Natchez to Nashville, Tennessee. It memorializes a series of Indian paths that became a post road. The Trace provides complete picnic grounds, nature areas, and a historic drive from Northeast Mississippi into Jackson, following the shore of the Ross Barnett Reservoir and beyond to Natchez.

Parks & Clubs

Throughout the area there are numerous public parks, tennis courts, picnic areas, and golf courses. There are several golf and country clubs, a tennis club, and several private, downtown clubs in Jackson.

Trustmark Park

The primary occupant is the Mississippi Braves, Class AA team of the Atlanta Braves. The park is situated on 30 acres near the intersection of I-55 and I-20 in Rankin County. A 360-degree concourse allows spectators to walk around the entire park and produces an amphitheater design. The stadium is in a recessed bowl with seating starting at the main level and proceeding downward. All support facilities (such as concessions) face outward onto the concourse, thus spectators can leave their seats and not be separated from the game action. Red bricks and exposed steel trusses reflect the feel of a historic ballpark with modern-day conveniences, including a LED video board and chair-back seats complete with arm rests and cup holders. A covered concourse and projecting roof off the suite level offers “front porch” shade to the lower level. Seating capacity is 7,219. Amenities include: Corporate picnic pavilion (capacity up to 325); Full-service, free-standing restaurant beyond right field, open year round (seating approximately 200); Family Fun Zone (inflatable slides, obstacle courses, etc).

Other Facilities

There is entertainment for everyone in Jackson, Ridgeland, and Madison including bowling alleys, stock car racing, riding stables, a skeet club, a yacht club, polo club, garden clubs, dozens of fine restaurants, supper clubs, and movie theaters. Consult the Yellow Pages for further information.
